FESTIVAL & COSTUMES

We do not know yet if we will be attending festivals this season. If we do not attend festivals this year, all paid festival fees will continue to be held by the festival organizers until we are able to use them. If we do attend festivals, families will be responsible to cover any fees that are above any amount credited last year.

Costume Fees are not being charged this year. We will do our best to use costumes we already have. This might mean using last year's costume, or purchasing/borrowing from someone, etc. Any costs with costuming (rental/purchase/cleaning) will be the family's responsibility. VSB will not be billing costume fees at this time.
